Course Description: This course of lectures, discussions, readings and films will explore the attempts of anthropologists to describe, interpret and analyze the social relations of a wide range of human societies, past and present. Topics will include kinship, marriage, descent, residence, modes of production, the control of sexuality and aggression, religion, and social evolution.

Course Objectives and Student Learning Objectives: At the end of this course students will be able to:
- Understand the historical development of anthropological thinking on the structure and organization of human social life
- Appreciate the great variety of social formats devised by different human populations
- Understand some of the principal forces at work on societies that promote social change and development

Course Prerequisites: 12 hours of anthropology, graduate status, or the permission of the instructor

Reading List:
- Nuer web pages: [http://www.as.ua.edu/ant/Faculty/murphy/436/weblinks.htm#The Nuer](http://www.as.ua.edu/ant/Faculty/murphy/436/weblinks.htm#The Nuer)

- Trobriander web pages: [http://www.as.ua.edu/ant/Faculty/murphy/436/weblinks.htm#The Trobriand Islanders](http://www.as.ua.edu/ant/Faculty/murphy/436/weblinks.htm#The Trobriand Islanders)

Michael D. Murphy, Kinship Symbols, Terms, and Concepts (A study guide on the web at http://www.as.ua.edu/ant/Faculty/murphy/436/kinship.htm)

Examination Schedule:

MIDTERM EXAM (Thursday, October 14): This exam will cover Evans-Pritchard’s The Nuer and Weiner’s The Trobrianders in their entireties, and all of the lectures to-date.

ESSAY (due date: Thursday, Nov 18 at 5 p.m.): This take home essay will be sent to me as a Microsoft Word attachment to an email (mdmurphy@tenhoor.as.ua.edu). The essay topic may be found at http://www.as.ua.edu/ant/Faculty/murphy/436/takehomeessay.htm and requires the student to demonstrate that the ethnographic monographs have been carefully read and considered in the light of the lectures.

FINAL EXAM (Wednesday, Dec. 15, 8-10:30 a.m.): This exam will cover all the readings and lectures assigned for the course, but with an emphasis on previously untested material, as well as Murphy’s A Kinship Glossary: Symbols, Terms and Concepts

Class Attendance and Participation: Attendance is required and excessive absences (3 or more) will lower the student’s grade for the course. Classroom participation is an important requirement of the course and it will figure in the final grade.
Grading: The final grade for the course will be based on scores for the midterm (30%), the take-home essay (30%) and the final exam (40%). Poor attendance will lower the grade for the course.

Make-up Examination Policy & Term Papers: Students who miss the midterm—for whatever reason—will be required to write a 20 page, typewritten paper on a topic that must be approved in advance. Those who wish to substitute a paper for the mid-term may do so, but plans should be made early in the term.

Your BAMA email account: Students are required to use their "bama" email account for this course. Bama email accounts are created near the beginning of each semester for all students who do not already have one. Once your account is created, you should receive an account information sheet in the mail. If you do not know your bama account name, ask me. If you forget it, you can access it online at https://bama.ua.edu/cgi-bin/cgiwrap/~acctweb/accountchange.pl.

WebCT and Lecture Notes: By all means take advantage of the WebCT site I have constructed for this course. Among other resources, it provides you with easily downloadable pdf files of the Power Point Presentations used in class. Access WebCT at http://webct.ua.edu/webct/public/home.pl

To log onto WebCT for the first time, see http://webct.ua.edu/student_faq.html#login

Your WebCT userid and password is the same that you use to access Tide Guide. The userid is your Campus Wide Identification number (CWID) and your password is the same one that you use for Tide Guide (If you haven’t changed it, it follows the MMDDYY format based on your birthday).

PDF files present you with material very similar to that of the Power Point Presentations used in class, but in a format that is much easier to print out. To take advantage of this feature you must have a copy of Acrobat Reader on the computer that you are using. You can download one from the website on the course web page.
