

2nd Annual Meeting of the Southeastern Evolutionary Perspectives Society

Friday, Feb 10th, 9:00 a.m. – Saturday, Feb 11th, 5:00 p.m.
Lloyd Hall 132

---

Keynote Address:

Patricia Kelley, Professor Emeritus of Geology
University of North Carolina Wilmington

Galápagos: How Darwin Evolved

Friday, 7 pm, Grand Ballroom, Embassy Suites

---

Sister Meetings

Join us!

Kids Evolutionary Perspectives Society (KEPS)

Tools for K-12 teachers for teaching evolution

Thurs, Feb 9th, .10:00: - 4:10, Natural History Museum, Smith 100

Featuring: Tyler Rhodes, Artist and Animator

Evolution! Learning Science Through Art

12:50 – 1:50 p.m.

Feminist Evolutionary Perspectives Society (FEPS)

Thurs, Feb 9th, .4:30 – 6:30, Natural History Museum, Smith 100

SEEPS is a regional interdisciplinary society dedicated to promoting evolution research and education at all levels.

<http://seepsociety.weebly.com/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/SEEvoPerspectives/>

<https://twitter.com/SEEPSociety>

For more info, email: cdlynn@ua.edu

College of Arts & Sciences